She is a Deacon in her church as well as a teacher of adult classes there. Ann loves prayer walking nations. She and her husband have prayer-walked many Muslim nations in the Middle East.

Ann loves the honor of speaking at women's retreats and spiritual gatherings. She desires to call others higher in their prayer life and walk with the Lord. If you come to her home she is zealous to show you her "Prayer Room" and her "Weapons Arsenal."

Her favorite scripture is Jeremiah 33:3 -- "Call to me and I will answer you and tell you great and unsearchable things you do not know."

Dana Enright is a vibrant prophetic speaker and encourager with a powerful testimony. As Regional Director for the North Central Region of Aglow International and a member of Aglow's U.S.

National Leadership Team, Dana travels frequently to share God's Word. She weaves her testimony, including her difficult growing up years, with later experiences living in Israel in the 2006 summer war with Hezbollah forces. Dana and husband, Ron, stood on God's Word to bring healing and restoration during very difficult times.

Her life is a testimony to God's goodness and faithfulness. From her own experiences, Dana is vigorously pro-life and has a special place in her heart for young, single moms. Her love for the Lord and His people resonate mightily as she calls people up into their true identities, as God created them to be.

Dana and her husband live in Wisconsin where they enjoy their five children and grandchildren in the U.S., as well as traveling to Israel as often as possible to see their son's family who live there.

Nora Flavin is the new Aglow International Wisconsin State Prayer Coordinator. She lives in rural Hudson, WI, where she has resided since 1973. A retired elementary teacher, she is the mother of daughter Leah, son Ryan, and has two grandchildren. She has been married and widowed twice.

God has been faithful to provide throughout struggles and blessings. As we sing in Amazing Grace: "through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come." Grace has kept me...

She was launched into the greater depths of the Holy Spirit through Aglow in MN in the 1970s. Later she served on the WI North Area Team. Church has been valuable in her transformation, with a passion that Jesus be manifested more visibly in signs and wonders today. Therefore, prayer is her mission. Currently she also serves in Arise! Women prayer groups.
